This conference will consider strategies for improving the success of associate professors as they seek career advancement. We encourage faculty and their administrators to attend together.

Our lunch plenary speaker, Dr. Nancy Tuana, director of the Rock Ethics Institute at The Pennsylvania State University, will speak on “The Roles of Mentoring, Advising and Strategizing in the Academy: Becoming a Leader is a Choice, Not an Accident.”

Faculty and administrators will attend panel sessions with their peers including:

- For faculty: “Choosing Your Future” and “Self-Promotion and Visibility.”
- For administrators: “Strategies for Assisting Faculty” and “Strategies for Promoting Visibility of Faculty.”
