

Charting Your Path - Speakers

March 16, 2011, UNC Charlotte, Barnhardt Student Activity Center

- ◆ Dr. Joan Lorden, UNC Charlotte, Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs
- ◆ Dr. Nancy Tuana, Penn State, Director, Rock Ethics Institute (Plenary Speaker)
- ◆ Dr. Brenda Allen, Winston-Salem State University, Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs
- ◆ Dr. Jay Raja, UNC Charlotte, Senior Associate Provost
- ◆ Dr. Alan White, East Carolina University, Dean of the Thomas Harriott College of Arts & Sciences
- ◆ Dr. Christine Grant, North Carolina State University, Associate Dean of Faculty Development and Special Initiatives, College of Engineering
- ◆ Dr. Yvette Huet, UNC Charlotte, Director, ADVANCE Faculty Affairs Office, and Professor, Department of Biology
- ◆ Dr. Teresa Dahlberg, UNC Charlotte, founding Director of the Diversity in Information Technology Institute (DITI) and Professor, Department of Computer Science
- ◆ Dr. Robin Coger, UNC Charlotte, Director, Center for Biomedical Engineering Systems; Professor, Mechanical Engineering & Engineering Science; and member, ADVANCE leadership team
- ◆ Dr. Kim Buch, UNC Charlotte, ADVANCE co-PI; coordinator of ADVANCE mid-career mentoring effort; and Associate Professor, Department of Psychology
- ◆ Dr. Anita Blowers, UNC Charlotte, Associate Professor, Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology; and coordinator of mid-career mentoring effort among social and behavioral science faculty
- ◆ Dr. Ron Sass, UNC Charlotte, Associate Professor, Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering; and coordinator of mid-career mentoring efforts among engineering faculty